

Imad is a rising senior at Andover High School with 4 years of teaching and mentoring experience having worked at Kumon as a teaching assistant. He has also served as a Sunday School teacher at the Andover Islamic Center for four years teaching Quranic Tajweed and Memorization. He is passionate about computer science and robotics; he has competed in multiple hackathons and worked on independent projects. He is eager to combine this passion with his love for teaching at Nashia.